

Scott Smith Working On New Development Highland Estates at Holbrook Junction

Holbrook Junction off 395 South of Gardnerville Nevada has been an increasing in development over the last few years. Now Scott Smith has partnered with local builders and developers to bring you the Highland Estates development. Highland Estates will feature two different Models each with 4 different elevations and each with 3 bedrooms and 2.5 bathrooms. Homes will be places on 2 Plus acres with well and septic as well as underground utilities.

Each model comes with three car finished garage and has the option for a detached RV garage. Proximity to BLM land and Topaz Lake fishing makes this an outdoors paradise.

Project has open lots now available. Contact Scott today to schedule a tour and to find your perfect location.
